Title: Update on the Administrative Work Plan Which Contains the Priorities and Goals of the City Council To Be Used By City Staff and Administration in Administrative Operations

Presenter: Joel Linares

Attachment(s):

- Administrative Work Plan

Background/Summary:

The City Council through its legislative authority has indicated to City staff that there are several projects, ideas, and management practices it wishes to see implemented by the City administration. These will provide guidance to priorities and actions by City staff.

The City Council has deliberated and through work sessions and strategic planning sessions have determined that this Administrative Work Plan is in the best interest of the City.

The Administrative Work Plan is an administrative guideline for the City of Moab for the operations, priorities, and goals of City staff and administration.
